

Prayer of adoration:

God is good!

No matter what circumstances surround us,
this truth prevails: that God is good.

Lord, for the wonders of your Creation, we praise and adore you.

For these days of summer sunshine,
for dewy mornings and hot afternoons
and the pleasant cool of evening,
for the brightness of the stars at night,
For the welcome lights of home as the darkness draws in,
We praise and adore you.
God is good!

For the love of families and the companionship of friends,
for the capacity to love and be loved,
that you have made us so that we need others
for the wonderful gift of your Son Jesus who calls us into relationship with you.
We praise and adore you.
God is good!

That your Spirit is ever with us,
a whisper in our ears, a touch on our hearts,
that there is no place we can go and you not be there,
that you have called us for your purposes,
to share in a new creation, to preach a living word,
to know the promised joys of heaven
We praise and adore you.
For God is good!                      Amen.
